

Dear Liturgical Ministers:

Attached is the monthly training schedule for the 2010-2011 liturgical year. Think of this as "Continuing Education". Please remember that you are requested to attend one "practical" training session per year. Sometimes, when we've been doing something for a long time, we might get a little complacent or even forget some of the fine points. This is why these sessions are offered. They are for you to be able to stay current and on top of things in addition to training new ministers. Mark your calendar for a session that is convenient for you for each of the ministries in which you participate.

This year, our large group session will be held on Nov. 19, 2010. Everyone should plan to be there. There will be more detail coming later in the year. This is the session where we will get more of the "Why" we do things the way we do. This will not be a practical session where there will be any time to go through the "How", but it is at least as important - possibly more so. ☺

Thanks so much. God Bless you all!
